

NEW YORK.

Loss of the Steamer Isabella Continued.—Another Missionary Bale Sold.—Reduction of Wages.

The American Hotel Association.—Ten-Mile Foot-Race.—Convention of Ticket-Agents.—Monetary.

Bishop Von Kettler's Letter to Emperor William.—The Pope's Second Letter Not Published.

Captain Hall's Prayer-Book.—Seven Persons Killed and Injured by a Boiler-Explosion.—Etc., Etc., Etc.

FAILURES AND DEVALUATIONS.

NEW YORK, November 11.—The firm that failed to-day was Battenhall & Co., whose transactions, says the Tribune, generally approximated a million dollars per annum. At a meeting of the creditors to-day, a resolution was passed that the assets should be sold at once, and the proceeds distributed to the creditors. The assets were valued at $1,000,000, and the liabilities at $1,200,000. The firm was organized in 1850, and had a capital of $1,000,000. It was a failure of the first magnitude.

THE PANAMA RAILROAD COMPANY.

There is a proposition to make a change in the presidency of the Panama railroad company at the next meeting on Thursday.

MISS CAPTAIN HALL.

Mrs. Captain Hall to-day paid a visit to the steamer Tigress. She was shown her husband's prayer-book, which was picked up by a correspondent at camp Polaris, which she wished to take possession of, but when she was told that it was the property of the United States army, she gave Captain Hall the book on the spot. She was also shown a letter which she had written to her husband, and which was found by a correspondent at camp Polaris. She was also shown a letter which she had written to her husband, and which was found by a correspondent at camp Polaris.

A WAR SPOYSTER.

The suit of G. B. Lamer, of Savannah, Georgia, against Charles A. Davis, for alleged false imprisonment, which was set on for trial to-day, was postponed to to-day. Davis's defense is that the arrest was made in good faith under orders from President Lincoln.

TERRIBLE KILLING—SEVEN PERSONS KILLED.

A boiler exploded at four o'clock this afternoon at the corner of Fourth and One Hundred and Twenty-eighth streets, near the corner of the city hall, killing seven persons and wounding many others. The explosion was caused by a defect in the boiler, and the result was a terrible tragedy.

TELEGRAPHIC SUMMARY.

Outstanding legal-tenders yesterday. Little Rockers enjoyed spring-like weather yesterday. The first anniversary of the big fire in New York was celebrated yesterday. The Tammany hall committee continued the investigation into the late election in New York yesterday.

LOSS OF THE ISABELLA CONTINUED.

The loss of the Isabella is fully credited at the ship news exchange. She sailed for the Mediterranean on the twenty-sixth of September, and was heavily laden with passengers and cargo. She was last seen on the coast of Nova Scotia by a sailing vessel, and was presumed to have been wrecked.

ANOTHER MISSIONARY BALE OF COTTON SOLD.

The Boston bale of cotton was to-day sold for the Memphis sufferers for three hundred dollars.

REALTY ASSOCIATION ORGANIZED.

The American hotel association held a preliminary meeting at noon to-day, at the Union League club, for the purpose of organizing a realty association. The meeting was attended by a large number of hoteliers and real estate men, and a resolution was passed to form a realty association.

CURRENT NEWS.

Disgraceful Scene in a St. Louis Courtroom.—More Hay Fires.—Another Comet.

Workingmen's Movements.—The Kelley Outrage.—Burglars Followed by Two Ladies.—Land Grants.

Government Officer Assassinated in Texas.—Judge Underwood Assaulted in Richmond.

The East Tennessee Railroad Troubles Ended.—Violent Gales on the British Coast.—Etc.

A $4,000,000 FAILURE.

LONDON, November 11.—It is reported that William Ashurst & Co. and Burns & Co. have failed. Liabilities said to be four million dollars.

THE EAST TENNESSEE RAILROAD TROUBLES ENDED.

The race at Fleetwood to-day, between Judge Fullerton and American Girl was won by Fullerton. Time, 2:24, 2:24, 2:24. The third heat was a dead one.

KNOWLEDGE, NOVEMBER 11.—THE LATE STRIKE ON THE EAST TENNESSEE RAILROAD.

Georgia and Virginia, including the engineers, machinists and blacksmiths, have withdrawn from their union. Trains are running regularly, and all is quiet.

ST. LOUIS, NOVEMBER 11.—A VIOLENT GALE PREVAILED ON THE BRITISH ISLANDS.

and the harbor was filled this morning with vessels disabled or seeking shelter. No serious disaster has yet been reported. A violent gale prevailed on the British islands, and the harbor was filled with vessels disabled or seeking shelter.

A VIOLENT GALE PREVAILED ON THE BRITISH ISLANDS.

and the harbor was filled this morning with vessels disabled or seeking shelter. No serious disaster has yet been reported. A violent gale prevailed on the British islands, and the harbor was filled with vessels disabled or seeking shelter.

ST. LOUIS, NOVEMBER 11.—A VIOLENT GALE PREVAILED ON THE BRITISH ISLANDS.

and the harbor was filled this morning with vessels disabled or seeking shelter. No serious disaster has yet been reported. A violent gale prevailed on the British islands, and the harbor was filled with vessels disabled or seeking shelter.

ST. LOUIS, NOVEMBER 11.—A VIOLENT GALE PREVAILED ON THE BRITISH ISLANDS.

and the harbor was filled this morning with vessels disabled or seeking shelter. No serious disaster has yet been reported. A violent gale prevailed on the British islands, and the harbor was filled with vessels disabled or seeking shelter.

ST. LOUIS, NOVEMBER 11.—A VIOLENT GALE PREVAILED ON THE BRITISH ISLANDS.

and the harbor was filled this morning with vessels disabled or seeking shelter. No serious disaster has yet been reported. A violent gale prevailed on the British islands, and the harbor was filled with vessels disabled or seeking shelter.

ST. LOUIS, NOVEMBER 11.—A VIOLENT GALE PREVAILED ON THE BRITISH ISLANDS.

and the harbor was filled this morning with vessels disabled or seeking shelter. No serious disaster has yet been reported. A violent gale prevailed on the British islands, and the harbor was filled with vessels disabled or seeking shelter.

ST. LOUIS, NOVEMBER 11.—A VIOLENT GALE PREVAILED ON THE BRITISH ISLANDS.

and the harbor was filled this morning with vessels disabled or seeking shelter. No serious disaster has yet been reported. A violent gale prevailed on the British islands, and the harbor was filled with vessels disabled or seeking shelter.

ST. LOUIS, NOVEMBER 11.—A VIOLENT GALE PREVAILED ON THE BRITISH ISLANDS.

and the harbor was filled this morning with vessels disabled or seeking shelter. No serious disaster has yet been reported. A violent gale prevailed on the British islands, and the harbor was filled with vessels disabled or seeking shelter.

ST. LOUIS, NOVEMBER 11.—A VIOLENT GALE PREVAILED ON THE BRITISH ISLANDS.

and the harbor was filled this morning with vessels disabled or seeking shelter. No serious disaster has yet been reported. A violent gale prevailed on the British islands, and the harbor was filled with vessels disabled or seeking shelter.

THE VIRGINIUS.

Secretary Fish thinks the Execution of the Cuban Patriots Cold-Blooded Murder.

Sympathy for them throughout the Country.—The Spanish Government Repudiates the Crime.

Our Fleet to be Strengthened.—Our Cabinet Fully Imbued with the American Idea.

NEW YORK, November 11.—A Washington correspondent has had an interview with Secretary Fish, regarding the shooting of the passengers of the Virginius, and the secretary said that the cold-blooded murder, and no one of sound judgment, would be likely to sympathize with the Cubans themselves, and that they have voluntarily taken up arms for another purpose.

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 11.—EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S ADDRESS.

to the people of the United States, published in the same paper in August last, on the subject of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, in his search for testimony. He succeeded in procuring one witness who said he saw the record of the case, with the petition attached, in the President's office. This witness is Hon. James Speed, then attorney-general, who is undoubtedly sincere in his statements, for, as already shown, the findings and sentence of the court were submitted on the fifth of July; and I being alone, there was no opportunity for tampering with the record.

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 11.—EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S ADDRESS.

to the people of the United States, published in the same paper in August last, on the subject of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, in his search for testimony. He succeeded in procuring one witness who said he saw the record of the case, with the petition attached, in the President's office. This witness is Hon. James Speed, then attorney-general, who is undoubtedly sincere in his statements, for, as already shown, the findings and sentence of the court were submitted on the fifth of July; and I being alone, there was no opportunity for tampering with the record.

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 11.—EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S ADDRESS.

to the people of the United States, published in the same paper in August last, on the subject of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, in his search for testimony. He succeeded in procuring one witness who said he saw the record of the case, with the petition attached, in the President's office. This witness is Hon. James Speed, then attorney-general, who is undoubtedly sincere in his statements, for, as already shown, the findings and sentence of the court were submitted on the fifth of July; and I being alone, there was no opportunity for tampering with the record.

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 11.—EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S ADDRESS.

to the people of the United States, published in the same paper in August last, on the subject of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, in his search for testimony. He succeeded in procuring one witness who said he saw the record of the case, with the petition attached, in the President's office. This witness is Hon. James Speed, then attorney-general, who is undoubtedly sincere in his statements, for, as already shown, the findings and sentence of the court were submitted on the fifth of July; and I being alone, there was no opportunity for tampering with the record.

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 11.—EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S ADDRESS.

to the people of the United States, published in the same paper in August last, on the subject of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, in his search for testimony. He succeeded in procuring one witness who said he saw the record of the case, with the petition attached, in the President's office. This witness is Hon. James Speed, then attorney-general, who is undoubtedly sincere in his statements, for, as already shown, the findings and sentence of the court were submitted on the fifth of July; and I being alone, there was no opportunity for tampering with the record.

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 11.—EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S ADDRESS.

to the people of the United States, published in the same paper in August last, on the subject of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, in his search for testimony. He succeeded in procuring one witness who said he saw the record of the case, with the petition attached, in the President's office. This witness is Hon. James Speed, then attorney-general, who is undoubtedly sincere in his statements, for, as already shown, the findings and sentence of the court were submitted on the fifth of July; and I being alone, there was no opportunity for tampering with the record.

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 11.—EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S ADDRESS.

to the people of the United States, published in the same paper in August last, on the subject of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, in his search for testimony. He succeeded in procuring one witness who said he saw the record of the case, with the petition attached, in the President's office. This witness is Hon. James Speed, then attorney-general, who is undoubtedly sincere in his statements, for, as already shown, the findings and sentence of the court were submitted on the fifth of July; and I being alone, there was no opportunity for tampering with the record.

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 11.—EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S ADDRESS.

to the people of the United States, published in the same paper in August last, on the subject of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, in his search for testimony. He succeeded in procuring one witness who said he saw the record of the case, with the petition attached, in the President's office. This witness is Hon. James Speed, then attorney-general, who is undoubtedly sincere in his statements, for, as already shown, the findings and sentence of the court were submitted on the fifth of July; and I being alone, there was no opportunity for tampering with the record.

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 11.—EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S ADDRESS.

to the people of the United States, published in the same paper in August last, on the subject of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, in his search for testimony. He succeeded in procuring one witness who said he saw the record of the case, with the petition attached, in the President's office. This witness is Hon. James Speed, then attorney-general, who is undoubtedly sincere in his statements, for, as already shown, the findings and sentence of the court were submitted on the fifth of July; and I being alone, there was no opportunity for tampering with the record.

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 11.—EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S ADDRESS.

to the people of the United States, published in the same paper in August last, on the subject of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, in his search for testimony. He succeeded in procuring one witness who said he saw the record of the case, with the petition attached, in the President's office. This witness is Hon. James Speed, then attorney-general, who is undoubtedly sincere in his statements, for, as already shown, the findings and sentence of the court were submitted on the fifth of July; and I being alone, there was no opportunity for tampering with the record.

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 11.—EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S ADDRESS.

to the people of the United States, published in the same paper in August last, on the subject of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, in his search for testimony. He succeeded in procuring one witness who said he saw the record of the case, with the petition attached, in the President's office. This witness is Hon. James Speed, then attorney-general, who is undoubtedly sincere in his statements, for, as already shown, the findings and sentence of the court were submitted on the fifth of July; and I being alone, there was no opportunity for tampering with the record.

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 11.—EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S ADDRESS.

to the people of the United States, published in the same paper in August last, on the subject of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, in his search for testimony. He succeeded in procuring one witness who said he saw the record of the case, with the petition attached, in the President's office. This witness is Hon. James Speed, then attorney-general, who is undoubtedly sincere in his statements, for, as already shown, the findings and sentence of the court were submitted on the fifth of July; and I being alone, there was no opportunity for tampering with the record.

THE VIRGINIUS.

Secretary Fish thinks the Execution of the Cuban Patriots Cold-Blooded Murder.

Sympathy for them throughout the Country.—The Spanish Government Repudiates the Crime.

Our Fleet to be Strengthened.—Our Cabinet Fully Imbued with the American Idea.

NEW YORK, November 11.—A Washington correspondent has had an interview with Secretary Fish, regarding the shooting of the passengers of the Virginius, and the secretary said that the cold-blooded murder, and no one of sound judgment, would be likely to sympathize with the Cubans themselves, and that they have voluntarily taken up arms for another purpose.

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 11.—EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S ADDRESS.

to the people of the United States, published in the same paper in August last, on the subject of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, in his search for testimony. He succeeded in procuring one witness who said he saw the record of the case, with the petition attached, in the President's office. This witness is Hon. James Speed, then attorney-general, who is undoubtedly sincere in his statements, for, as already shown, the findings and sentence of the court were submitted on the fifth of July; and I being alone, there was no opportunity for tampering with the record.

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 11.—EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S ADDRESS.

to the people of the United States, published in the same paper in August last, on the subject of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, in his search for testimony. He succeeded in procuring one witness who said he saw the record of the case, with the petition attached, in the President's office. This witness is Hon. James Speed, then attorney-general, who is undoubtedly sincere in his statements, for, as already shown, the findings and sentence of the court were submitted on the fifth of July; and I being alone, there was no opportunity for tampering with the record.

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 11.—EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S ADDRESS.

to the people of the United States, published in the same paper in August last, on the subject of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, in his search for testimony. He succeeded in procuring one witness who said he saw the record of the case, with the petition attached, in the President's office. This witness is Hon. James Speed, then attorney-general, who is undoubtedly sincere in his statements, for, as already shown, the findings and sentence of the court were submitted on the fifth of July; and I being alone, there was no opportunity for tampering with the record.

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 11.—EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S ADDRESS.

to the people of the United States, published in the same paper in August last, on the subject of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, in his search for testimony. He succeeded in procuring one witness who said he saw the record of the case, with the petition attached, in the President's office. This witness is Hon. James Speed, then attorney-general, who is undoubtedly sincere in his statements, for, as already shown, the findings and sentence of the court were submitted on the fifth of July; and I being alone, there was no opportunity for tampering with the record.

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 11.—EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S ADDRESS.

to the people of the United States, published in the same paper in August last, on the subject of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, in his search for testimony. He succeeded in procuring one witness who said he saw the record of the case, with the petition attached, in the President's office. This witness is Hon. James Speed, then attorney-general, who is undoubtedly sincere in his statements, for, as already shown, the findings and sentence of the court were submitted on the fifth of July; and I being alone, there was no opportunity for tampering with the record.

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 11.—EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S ADDRESS.

to the people of the United States, published in the same paper in August last, on the subject of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, in his search for testimony. He succeeded in procuring one witness who said he saw the record of the case, with the petition attached, in the President's office. This witness is Hon. James Speed, then attorney-general, who is undoubtedly sincere in his statements, for, as already shown, the findings and sentence of the court were submitted on the fifth of July; and I being alone, there was no opportunity for tampering with the record.

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 11.—EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S ADDRESS.

to the people of the United States, published in the same paper in August last, on the subject of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, in his search for testimony. He succeeded in procuring one witness who said he saw the record of the case, with the petition attached, in the President's office. This witness is Hon. James Speed, then attorney-general, who is undoubtedly sincere in his statements, for, as already shown, the findings and sentence of the court were submitted on the fifth of July; and I being alone, there was no opportunity for tampering with the record.

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 11.—EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S ADDRESS.

to the people of the United States, published in the same paper in August last, on the subject of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, in his search for testimony. He succeeded in procuring one witness who said he saw the record of the case, with the petition attached, in the President's office. This witness is Hon. James Speed, then attorney-general, who is undoubtedly sincere in his statements, for, as already shown, the findings and sentence of the court were submitted on the fifth of July; and I being alone, there was no opportunity for tampering with the record.

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 11.—EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S ADDRESS.

to the people of the United States, published in the same paper in August last, on the subject of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, in his search for testimony. He succeeded in procuring one witness who said he saw the record of the case, with the petition attached, in the President's office. This witness is Hon. James Speed, then attorney-general, who is undoubtedly sincere in his statements, for, as already shown, the findings and sentence of the court were submitted on the fifth of July; and I being alone, there was no opportunity for tampering with the record.

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 11.—EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S ADDRESS.

to the people of the United States, published in the same paper in August last, on the subject of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, in his search for testimony. He succeeded in procuring one witness who said he saw the record of the case, with the petition attached, in the President's office. This witness is Hon. James Speed, then attorney-general, who is undoubtedly sincere in his statements, for, as already shown, the findings and sentence of the court were submitted on the fifth of July; and I being alone, there was no opportunity for tampering with the record.

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 11.—EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S ADDRESS.

to the people of the United States, published in the same paper in August last, on the subject of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, in his search for testimony. He succeeded in procuring one witness who said he saw the record of the case, with the petition attached, in the President's office. This witness is Hon. James Speed, then attorney-general, who is undoubtedly sincere in his statements, for, as already shown, the findings and sentence of the court were submitted on the fifth of July; and I being alone, there was no opportunity for tampering with the record.

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 11.—EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S ADDRESS.

to the people of the United States, published in the same paper in August last, on the subject of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, in his search for testimony. He succeeded in procuring one witness who said he saw the record of the case, with the petition attached, in the President's office. This witness is Hon. James Speed, then attorney-general, who is undoubtedly sincere in his statements, for, as already shown, the findings and sentence of the court were submitted on the fifth of July; and I being alone, there was no opportunity for tampering with the record.

THE VIRGINIUS.

Secretary Fish thinks the Execution of the Cuban Patriots Cold-Blooded Murder.

Sympathy for them throughout the Country.—The Spanish Government Repudiates the Crime.

Our Fleet to be Strengthened.—Our Cabinet Fully Imbued with the American Idea.

NEW YORK, November 11.—A Washington correspondent has had an interview with Secretary Fish, regarding the shooting of the passengers of the Virginius, and the secretary said that the cold-blooded murder, and no one of sound judgment, would be likely to sympathize with the Cubans themselves, and that they have voluntarily taken up arms for another purpose.

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 11.—EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S ADDRESS.

to the people of the United States, published in the same paper in August last, on the subject of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, in his search for testimony. He succeeded in procuring one witness who said he saw the record of the case, with the petition attached, in the President's office. This witness is Hon. James Speed, then attorney-general, who is undoubtedly sincere in his statements, for, as already shown, the findings and sentence of the court were submitted on the fifth of July; and I being alone, there was no opportunity for tampering with the record.

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 11.—EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S ADDRESS.

to the people of the United States, published in the same paper in August last, on the subject of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, in his search for testimony. He succeeded in procuring one witness who said he saw the record of the case, with the petition attached, in the President's office. This witness is Hon. James Speed, then attorney-general, who is undoubtedly sincere in his statements, for, as already shown, the findings and sentence of the court were submitted on the fifth of July; and I being alone, there was no opportunity for tampering with the record.

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 11.—EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S ADDRESS.

to the people of the United States, published in the same paper in August last, on the subject of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, in his search for testimony. He succeeded in procuring one witness who said he saw the record of the case, with the petition attached, in the President's office. This witness is Hon. James Speed, then attorney-general, who is undoubtedly sincere in his statements, for, as already shown, the findings and sentence of the court were submitted on the fifth of July; and I being alone, there was no opportunity for tampering with the record.

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 11.—EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S ADDRESS.

to the people of the United States, published in the same paper in August last, on the subject of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, in his search for testimony. He succeeded in procuring one witness who said he saw the record of the case, with the petition attached, in the President's office. This witness is Hon. James Speed, then attorney-general, who is undoubtedly sincere in his statements, for, as already shown, the findings and sentence of the court were submitted on the fifth of July; and I being alone, there was no opportunity for tampering with the record.

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 11.—EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S ADDRESS.

to the people of the United States, published in the same paper in August last, on the subject of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, in his search for testimony. He succeeded in procuring one witness who said he saw the record of the case, with the petition attached, in the President's office. This witness is Hon. James Speed, then attorney-general, who is undoubtedly sincere in his statements, for, as already shown, the findings and sentence of the court were submitted on the fifth of July; and I being alone, there was no opportunity for tampering with the record.

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 11.—EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S ADDRESS.

to the people of the United States, published in the same paper in August last, on the subject of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, in his search for testimony. He succeeded in procuring one witness who said he saw the record of the case, with the petition attached, in the President's office. This witness is Hon. James Speed, then attorney-general, who is undoubtedly sincere in his statements, for, as already shown, the findings and sentence of the court were submitted on the fifth of July; and I being alone, there was no opportunity for tampering with the record.

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 11.—EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S ADDRESS.

to the people of the United States, published in the same paper in August last, on the subject of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, in his search for testimony. He succeeded in procuring one witness who said he saw the record of the case, with the petition attached, in the President's office. This witness is Hon. James Speed, then attorney-general, who is undoubtedly sincere in his statements, for, as already shown, the findings and sentence of the court were submitted on the fifth of July; and I being alone, there was no opportunity for tampering with the record.

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 11.—EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S ADDRESS.

to the people of the United States, published in the same paper in August last, on the subject of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, in his search for testimony. He succeeded in procuring one witness who said he saw the record of the case, with the petition attached, in the President's office. This witness is Hon. James Speed, then attorney-general, who is undoubtedly sincere in his statements, for, as already shown, the findings and sentence of the court were submitted on the fifth of July; and I being alone, there was no opportunity for tampering with the record.

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 11.—EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S ADDRESS.

to the people of the United States, published in the same paper in August last, on the subject of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, in his search for testimony. He succeeded in procuring one witness who said he saw the record of the case, with the petition attached, in the President's office. This witness is Hon. James Speed, then attorney-general, who is undoubtedly sincere in his statements, for, as already shown, the findings and sentence of the court were submitted on the fifth of July; and I being alone, there was no opportunity for tampering with the record.

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 11.—EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S ADDRESS.

to the people of the United States, published in the same paper in August last, on the subject of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, in his search for testimony. He succeeded in procuring one witness who said he saw the record of the case, with the petition attached, in the President's office. This witness is Hon. James Speed, then attorney-general, who is undoubtedly sincere in his statements, for, as already shown, the findings and sentence of the court were submitted on the fifth of July; and I being alone, there was no opportunity for tampering with the record.

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 11.—EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S ADDRESS.

to the people of the United States, published in the same paper in August last, on the subject of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, in his search for testimony. He succeeded in procuring one witness who said he saw the record of the case, with the petition attached, in the President's office. This witness is Hon. James Speed, then attorney-general, who is undoubtedly sincere in his statements, for, as already shown, the findings and sentence of the court were submitted on the fifth of July; and I being alone, there was no opportunity for tampering with the record.

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 11.—EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S ADDRESS.

to the people of the United States, published in the same paper in August last, on the subject of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, in his search for testimony. He succeeded in procuring one witness who said he saw the record of the case, with the petition attached, in the President's office. This witness is Hon. James Speed, then attorney-general, who is undoubtedly sincere in his statements, for, as already shown, the findings and sentence of the court were submitted on the fifth of July; and I being alone, there was no opportunity for tampering with the record.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Notice to Cotton Shippers. OFFICE GENERAL FACTORY AGENTS. MEMPHIS AND CHICAGO. B. H. HARRIS. November 11, 1873.

VIRGINIA AND THE CUBAN PATRIOTS. A. J. SMITH. November 11, 1873.

Judge Advocate Holt Answered Fully and Fairly.—A Lie Out Somewhere.

Chance for a Response by Stanton's Right-Bower.—The Truth of History vindicated.

CHARLESTON MARKET.

81 Charleston Avenue.

J. M. WILLIAMS & CO.

GROCERS.

COTTON FACTORS

AND COMMISSION MERCHANTS.

202 Front St., Memphis, Tenn.

J. D. STEWART'S